About the Publisher

Zakon Publishing is a major Russian publisher of professional legal content operating since 2006. Our main products include:

- The Herald of Commercial Justice of Russia – an academic journal focused on thorough analysis of current court practice in the areas of commercial and procedural law. It is also the journal which publishes major articles on theoretical problems of civil and procedural law.
- Zakon Journal — an academic journal with broad range of topics which combines high quality analytical content for business lawyers with expert comments and interviews valuable also for broader audience.
- Mobile app for our journals — available on App Store (<http://apple.co/2J0gjvf>) and Google Play Market (<http://bit.ly/2rTLei9>).
- Zakon.ru (zakon.ru) — one first social network for lawyers and of the most popular websites for lawyers in Russia. It is a platform for legal blogging and professional discussion as well as a legal news website where you could find information about important judgments of the Supreme Court of Russia and other important events in Russian legal life.
- Igzakon.ru — a website about our journals where you could find their contents and purchase subscription as well as separate issues.
- Vestnik.ru — a website about The Herald of Commercial Justice of Russia.

Journals of Zakon Publishing are on the List of the Peer-Reviewed Scientific Journals and Publications containing the most notable scientific results of Doctoral and PhD theses in Law.
