

The focus of the Herald of Economic Justice is the practice of arbitrazh courts and analysis of difficult problems of private and commercial law, as well as civil procedure. The journal's approach follows best traditions of the Herald of the Supreme Arbitrazh Court of the Russian Federation — an official journal of the court which had been published by Zakon Publishing until the liquidation of the court in August 2014.

The Herald of Economic Justice mainly covers new cases of the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation in the sphere of commercial and private law. In each issue you will find:

- case comments on the most important judgments of the Economic and Civil Chambers of the Supreme Court;
- digest of the judgments of the same chambers that were delivered in the previous month;
- detailed analysis of the rulings of the Plenum of the Supreme Court that are related to private and commercial law and arbitrazh and civil procedure.

The journal follows the traditions of the Herald of the Supreme Arbitrazh Court of Russia and publishes case law reviews on the hottest practical topics, articles written by well-known scholars and leading practitioners focused on the most difficult issues that each lawyer faces in his or her practice.

The Herald of Economic Justice will provide useful support for your practice. You will know current case law trends and will receive clues to resolve most controversial legal problems. The journal is one of the most renowned Russian legal journals in the sphere of civil, tax, administrative and procedural law.
